

Family Friendly Employer Award Nomination Form

The following criteria will be used to select the Family Friendly Employer of the Year:

1. The employer recognizes the dual responsibilities that employees have to their families and their jobs, and offers strong support to help employees balance those responsibilities.
2. The employer demonstrates a strong commitment to employees by offering benefits and/or policies that support and strengthen working families. These may include, but are not limited to:
 - Dependent Care Assistance Programs (DCAP)
 - Job protected family leave
 - Flexible/part-time job sharing options with benefits and advancement opportunities
 - Resource and Referral Services
 - Parent/Family Education program
 - Financial assistance with child care costs
 - Employer sponsored child care program
3. The employer supports or sponsors community programs that benefit children and working families.

To be eligible, employers must have a location in Livermore, Pleasanton or Dublin. Employer size and/or financial commitment are not a consideration.
