

Discovering the Little Scientist in your Classroom

Science is such an important aspect to incorporate into your classroom encouraging such developmental stages as classifying, exploration, and collecting and organizing.

March 17th
6:30pm–8:30pm

Child Care Links

Join Child Care Links and Enhanced Mentor, Cherida Gruenfeldt, and learn how to support the little scientists in your classroom! Cherida will aid all providers that attend in how to correctly set up a science center, as well as simple science experiments, a list of child friendly scientific terms, and a comprehensive handout packet full of ideas to take back to your classroom!

Don't miss this opportunity to enhance your program to a creative new level!

Registration is FREE
